Characters

Who is Buddy?
a) A young boy growing up in Belfast
b) A journalist reporting about the conflict
c) A British soldier stationed in Northern Ireland
d) A teacher at Buddy's school

What problem does Buddy's father face?
a) He cannot find a job
b) He must decide whether the family should leave Belfast
c) He wants to join the British Army
d) He plans to move to America alone

Who is Moira?
a) Buddy's sister
b) Buddy's grandmother
c) Buddy's school teacher
d) Buddy's cousin

Which character tries to pressure the community to join the riots?
a) Pa
b) Billy Clanton
c) the school principal
d) a British soldier

Plot

What event marks the beginning of the conflict in Buddy's neighbourhood?
a) A political speech
b) A violent riot in the street
c) A school protest
d) A military attack

Why do many families consider leaving Belfast?
a) because of economic problems
b) because of increasing violence and insecurity
c) because of new job opportunities abroad
d) because the city is becoming overcrowded

What internal conflict does Buddy experience during the film?
a) He must choose between two schools
b) He struggles to understand the religious conflict around him
c) He wants to move away from his family
d) He wants to become a soldier

What important decision does Buddy's family have to make?
a) whether to support the riots
b) whether to move away from Belfast
c) whether to change their religion
d) whether to report their neighbours

Setting & Atmosphere

Where and when does the story mainly take place?
a) Belfast in the 1960s
b) Dublin in the 1980s
c) London in the 1950s
d) Glasgow in the 1970s

How does the film portray life in Belfast during this time?
a) peaceful and stable
b) tense and unpredictable
c) modern and prosperous d) isolated and rural

How does Buddy experience the conflict around him?
a) as a distant political event
b) through everyday experiences in his neighbourhood
c) only through television news
d) through stories from his parents

The Troubles in Northern Ireland

The conflict in Northern Ireland was mainly between …

_____

_____

Many families left Belfast because …

_____

_____

The film shows that political conflict can affect …

_____

_____